Grandparents and History

In the story, Kendall wonders about how old his grandma might be.

What do you think might have been happening in the world when your grandparents were kids?

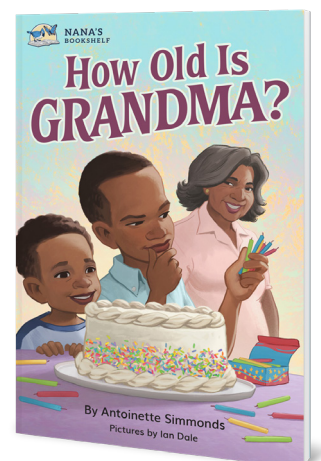

Can you write or draw what you think might have been happening in history below?

My Special Grandparents

"Not all grandmothers are the same. Some are fast and run, jump and roll in the grass to play. Some grandmothers are slow and use a cane. Other grandmothers need a little help in a special way."

Can you think of a grandparent with a special love or gift?
Write or draw it below.
